

State of Colorado - Application for Absentee Ballot

First Time Voters Who Registered By Mail

If you registered to vote by mail for the first time in the state of Colorado and have not submitted the proper identification as outlined below, a copy of one of the following forms of identification is required to be submitted with the absentee ballot.

- A valid Colorado driver's license; or
- A valid Colorado Department of Revenue identification card; or
- A valid U.S. passport; or
- A valid pilot's license issued by the Federal Aviation Administration; or
- A valid employee identification with a photograph issued by the U.S. Government, Colorado state government, or any county, municipality, board, authority, or other political subdivision of the state; or
- A valid U.S. Military Identification card with photograph; or
- A valid Medicare or Medicaid card issued by the United States Health Care Financing Administration; or
- A certified copy of a birth certificate for the elector issued in the United States; or
- Certified documentation of naturalization; or
- A copy of a current utility bill, bank statement, government check, paycheck, or other governmental document that shows the name and address of the elector

Some forms of identification may not contain an address. If the address appears on the identification, the address must be in Colorado. Do not include original documents with this application.

"Under Colorado Law, your absentee ballot application must contain your printed name, signature, residence address, date of birth, and mailing address if you wish to receive the ballot by mail. If you do not provide all of this information, you may not receive an absentee ballot according to the rules established by the secretary of state."
